

Post-Survey

How long did you spend reading the material?

How busy was the Design Center during your session?

- ☐ Not busy
- ☐ Moderately busy
- ☐ Extremely busy

Strongly disagree to strongly agree questions:

1. I feel confident to try this project in the Design Center.
2. After this learning experience, I am interested in exploring other electronic projects in the Design Center.
3. I felt supported in my learning through the format of the material.
4. The format of the material enhanced my learning and understanding.
5. I feel intimidated by experimenting with electronics at my current knowledge level.
6. I feel ready to experiment with electronics at my current knowledge level.
7. I felt engaged with the material while reviewing it.
8. The instructional material met my expectations in terms of providing useful information.
9. I have gained a deeper understanding of how electronic circuits work.
10. The busyness of the Design Center improved my learning.
11. The busyness of the Design Center hindered my learning.

Open ended questions:

Describe your perceptions of the learning material. What did you like about the format of the information? What did you dislike? How did these elements make you feel while you were learning? Please provide 5-7 sentences.